NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

☞ We noticed, editorially, on Saturday the fact that we had received a communication from a person in Milford, giving an account of gambling and a quarrel occurring in that town. We did not feel disposed to publish the article for various reasons, and we have since learned that the story is not true, that the town of Milford is as free from gambling as any other town in the State, and that as to quarreling there is not a more peaceable village than Milford, in the country.

The communication probably originated in personal spite, and, perhaps, remotely, for political effect. We have no fancy for being made the medium of any such designs or purposes, and we consider any man who, from whatever motive will thus give utterance to slander, as bad, if not worse than even a gambler or duelist. These crimes may be committed by men who have sense of honor, at least who are willing to be seen and to incur personal risk, instead of skulking in the meanest cowardice, as does the slanderer, and backbiter.

Look out for House Robbers.

On Tuesday last, soon after my wife, with several other ladies, had left my house by the front door, leaving it unlocked, my daughter, six years old, had passed from my dining room across the passage way leading from the front door through the house, into a back parlor on the opposite side, and was just returning, when, as she stepped into the passage way, or hall, she instantly noticed a young man, or "old boy," back towards her, on his retreat towards the front door. As soon as he heard her footsteps behind, he faced about, giving her a good, but hasty opportunity to scan his appearance, then turned, on the child's screaming for her grandmother and left the house in such haste that when her grandmother and my son (both being in the back part of the house) went to the door, he was invisible, and they did not seek further to find him, believing him only an imaginary visitor, growing out of the fears of the child. Nothing having been missed, the circumstance had nearly been forgotten, when, yesterday, my wife found, on entering a chamber seldom used, that the lock of a small draw or in a Bureau, containing some valuables, was nearly cut out with a chisel which the rascal dropped near by his unfinished job, frightened off, undoubtedly, by the noise of the little girl below. He probably supposed, seeing my wife and others pass out, that the house was left to take care of itself, or at least he might work in the front part without being disturbed. He may be assured he was seen by two bright eyes, and has been well described, and may consider himself lucky indeed if he is not recognized when I meet him, and I will try hard to do so.—I hear of any more of his professional calls. They show a bad state of society.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 29

In the Senate—The Chair presented a communication from the Postmaster General, in answer to the resolution of the 8th inst., relative to contract with California steamers. The communication was ordered to be printed and referred to the Post Office committee.

The consideration of the private calendar was postponed, and the resolution to continue in employment the Clerk to the President of the Senate during the remainder of the session at the previous compensation was adopted.

Mr. Mangum offered a resolution that the committee on contingent expenses inquire what number of messengers, pages and folders were necessary for the Senate, and their pay; also the number of carriages, horses, &c., necessary. After some little debate the resolution was adopted.

Mr. Mallory presented twenty memorials from Mexican claimants—referred to a select committee.

Mr. Soule offered a resolution appropriating $1000 to purchase seeds for the Patent Office.

Mr. Mason objected to the consideration of the resolution.

Mr. Hale offered a resolution that the Committee on Public Buildings inquire into the expediency of purchasing the pictures at Washington containing the Delaware, to be deposited in the Congressional Library.

Mr. Dodge of Wisconsin, notified the Senate of his intention to introduce a bill granting lands for a railroad from Sheboygan, on Lake Michigan, to the Mississippi River.

On motion of Mr. Bradbury, the House amendments to the bill relating to the holding of Courts during the disability of Judges was concurred in.

The bill providing for the unpaid claims of the Virginia State and Continental Mace of steamers was ordered engrossed.

The Senate then took up the private calendar, and ordered to be engrossed the bill for the payment of Jerahul Perkins as certain cases.

The bill for the benefit of the Carmelite Nunnery of Baltimore was reported upon adversely. Messrs. Pratt and Mallory defended the bill. An animated debate was continued between Messrs. Seple, Cooper, Davison, Bradbury, Badger, and others, when the vote was taken and the bill lost—yeas 21, nays 23.

A motion to adjourn until Monday was made and carried.

In the House—After the usual opening business, on motion of Mr. Houston, the House immediately went into Committee of the Whole and resumed consideration of the Deficiency Bill, Mr. Gilbert in the chair.

Mr. Fitch moved an amendment allowing $12,000 for the removal and subsistence of the Pottawatamies Indians of Indiana. Adopted.

Mr. Johnson moved an amendment of $50,000 for the removal and subsistence of the Cherokees, Indiana. The motion was debated at some length, and was finally adopted.

Mr. Johnson of Arkansas moved to increase the appropriation for contingent expenses in the Indian Report $75,000. Agreed to.

Mr. McConnell of California moved an amendment appropriating $620,000 for the payment of the claims of the Indian commissioners of California, for supplies furnished and expenses incurred in negotiating treaties with the various Indian tribes. A short debate ensued, and on the vote being taken, the amendment was declared lost.

Numerous other amendments were offered to the bill making them the following, which were adopted: appropriating $11,000 for expenses incurred in negotiating treaties with the Indians in Oregon; $2000 to enable the Secretary for the relief of the Cabin passengers; and $1600 to complete the American Dictionary in Spanish.

Mr. Underwood moved that all the moneys appropriated by the bill for the payment of claims [illegible] Committee of Claims. [illegible]

[illegible], Littlefield, Mann, Millikel[illegible], Tobey, Vinal, Walker—142.

[illegible] Bell, Chapman, Fish, Gor[illegible] Mitchell, Neal, Piper, Prince, [illegible]

Mr. [illegible] moved a reconsideration of the [illegible]

Mr. [illegible] will just as much obliged to the [illegible]ing the motion he thought he [illegible] for the purpose of allowing him [illegible] to discuss the merits of the bill, [illegible] purpose of clinching the vote [illegible]

Mr. [illegible] spoke from 20 minutes before 11 [illegible] all nearly 2 o'clock, P M in [illegible] tion to reconsider, and in oppo[illegible] ill-interrupted, however, with [illegible] successful motions to lay upon [illegible]ors, &c. His speech was lu[illegible]profound interest and attention, [illegible] circumstance that not a single [illegible] senator in favor of the Bill could be secured, even by that strongest of all appeals—the argumentum ad hominem—namely, to go to dinner—from listening to the speaker until the close of his eloquent speech. Mr. B. having concluded, the question was taken on reconsideration, and [illegible]—yeas 12, nays [illegible].

In the House—Mr. Piper moved an order directing the Secretary of State to ascertain and communicate to the House the number of persons confined in the several jails, and in the State prison, under the age of eighteen years, and where the person resided when committed, and that he communicate this information to this body as fast as received by him. The order was passed.

Resolves in relation to the public lands, vetoed by the Governor, but passed notwithstanding, by the Senate, were received from that body.

A debate occurred on the question of passing the same, in which Messrs. Smart, Luddem, J. S. Noyes, Main and Gilman advocated the passage of the resolves and Messrs. Talbot, Carter and Chapman of Biddeford, opposed them. The question was then taken, and the resolve passed a passage, yeas 83, nays 72.

On motion of Mr. Chapman of Biddeford, the resolves and message were then ordered to be printed.

A new Sign of "Punch."

FIVE SUNDAYS IN FEBRUARY.—The unrefleeting probably have never noticed that, in the month which, like the Russell Ministry, has just gone out, the above extraordinary event has taken place. In the twenty-nine days of February there were five Sundays. Such an unusual occurrence, we are informed by a patient man who has given himself the generous trouble to calculate, will not happen again for upwards of seventy years,—in other words,

When the Catalogue of the British Museum, and the Nelson Pillar are completed,

When the abuses of the City Corporation are rescinded,

When London is supplied with good water, cheap gas, perfect sewerage, and unadulterated milk,

When the New Houses of Parliament are nearly finished,

When the works of Mr G. P. R. James have come to an end,

When an omnibus will carry a person quicker than he can walk, and

When not a single tradesman will be convicted of using false weights and measures.

That such an event will re-occur, but not before.

VOX POPULI IN PARIS.—An entire change has taken place in the political cries of Paris. Instead of Vive le Republique! Vive la Liberte, Vive la Fraternite! Vive la confusion! Vive la guillotine! Vive la Montagne! Abas la liberte! Abas la Presse! whilst the soldiers bellow, Vivent les sauciasses! Vive la charcuterie! and the climax of these cries in Vive l'Empereur!

IMPORTANT TO

SAW MILL OWNERS.

THE subscribers having made arrangements to manufacture and sell Messrs. J. K. & W. H. Mayo's Machines, for which a patent has been applied for, invented for the purpose of cutting up all destroying edgings, made in new mill and lath Machines, would recommend them to all owners and operators, as a great labor saving Machine, for keeping mills clear of edgings and water staff, and also to prevent their being thrown into the rivers and streams which now is at so much trouble, and great expense, by filling up the channels, making back water and filling and breaking booms &c.

These Machines need only to be seen in operation, to satisfy all interested in lumbering operations of their great importance and utility to their interest.

These Machines are simple in their construction and operation and durable, and noticable to get out of order.

They beg leave to refer to the annexed certificate as to the value of these Machines to those engaged in the manufacture of lumber.

HINCKLEY & BERRY.

THE subscribers having purchased and had in operation at their Saw Mill at the City Mills, four of the Messrs. Mayo's Machines for cutting up and destroying Edgings, have found them to answer all the purposes for which they were intended, and can recommend them as a great labor saving Machine, and one of the most important improvements required in the manufacture of lumber.

JOHN W. VEAZIE.

NO HEALTH RISKS TAKEN BY THE COMPANY.

THE Hartford Life and Inquiries Company take risks on Life, grant or purchase annuities, cover endowments, and make contracts upon all questions of interest and reversionary interests connected with life risks, agreeable to the powers and privileges conferred by the charter.

The business of the Company is conducted upon the JOINT STOCK AND MUTUAL PLAN, at the option of the insured, thus meeting the wants and views of the public more fully, it is believed, than purely Mutual Companies can do.

The Charter of the Company provides that the widow or heirs of her husband, and the amount of the policy, free from claims of creditors.

Travelling, sea, and foreign residence permits will be granted at a small extra premium.

Policies for lives of persons going to California will be granted by the Joint Stock principle only, and at a fair rate of premium.

Justice of the Peace,

FOR THE

STATE OF MAINE.

THE above work just published by the subscriber, is designed to aid Guide and Directors of the Peace, in the discharge of the duties of their office. It is believed it will prove to be found highly useful, in those for whom it was particularly designed, but also to the members of the bar generally.

The following notice from the Portland Advertiser, embodies all that the publishers desire to say in its behalf.

SANBORN & CARTER.

Portland, Feb 16, 1852

TO THE Justice of the Peace, designed to be a Guide to Justices of the Peace, for the State of Maine.

Messrs. Sanborn & Carter, have just issued a very volume of about 400 pages, under the above title. Its object appears in the title itself. It seems that something fifteen years have elapsed, since the publication of any similar work for this State—Within that time the new methods of proceeding, required by the Revised Statutes, and the changes effected by legislation since the adoption of the revised code of 1841, have been such as to make a new guide and manual for magistrates highly desirable, and just, necessary for those officers, who administer justice.

Every page of the book shows that the compiler has been carefully and faithfully performed, and we have reason to know that, in addition to the more duty of compilation, the whole work has been subjected to a rigid examination by a careful and superior hand. Absolute freedom from error cannot be claimed for any work of this kind, depending as it does for its preparation upon an immense number of statutes, forms, decisions and opinions, but we can confidently recommend it to all intelligent and careful magistrates as a safe guide, and as the best guide now attainable, for practice under our present laws.

The careful manner in which the whole work has been prepared, will attract the eye, by any competent person, who will look over the sections on Depositions, Trustee Process, Forcible Entry and Detainer, and the Poor Debtor Law. On these subjects which are matters in every day practice, there has been much recent legislation, and many decisions of importance are comprised in these sections, so that of reports an inspection of the style in which the book is done and bound, will soon show the examiner, that few if any important points have been overlooked.

Something like 150 pages of the book are occupied with forms. These also, indicate great care in their selection and verification, and we believe they may be used, in the appropriate cases, with all practicable confidence and safety.
